office worker discovers webpost and is hailed a hero!

Postroom boy Tom Carter
"I thought it was a great idea and I have saved my company serious money. I will wear my webpost T shirt with pride" says Tom, from Scunthorpe.

Here's how it works
webpost is a professional online mailing service and makes your business mail cheaper and more efficient. Download the print driver, top up your account and you're ready to webpost.

'the WebPost print quality is spectacular'
You can post directly from any Microsoft® application by selecting the webpost driver as your printer, the 'print file' is securely transmitted to us electronically. We then print, fold, insert and frank your documents and pop them into Royal Mail for local, 'final mile' delivery.

As you can see the webpost print quality is spectacular, so your logo, text and any pictures will be crisp and vibrant. It's easy to use, economical and it's very, very effective. By the way it's greener too, so your clients will love you for using it as well !

IN THE NEWS

Save pounds ! ! !
wow, this is news! No need for printers, envelopes, paper, folder inserters or franking machines.

Cheaper
compared to printing on a local printer, enveloping and franking.

More efficient allowing you to get on with running your business.

Greener webpost avoids the need for Royal Mail to collect, sort and transport your mail. By printing close to the Royal Mail Inward Mail Centre we save the need for collection of your mail and transportation through the Royal Mail trunk network for sorting and delivery. Studies show that your carbon footprint will reduce by up to 80%

We sort the mail electronically and pass it to Royal Mail for final mile delivery.

Scalable
all businesses, from the smallest to the very largest, can benefit.

Multi-page documents
By using advanced technology, a small barcode will be printed on your documents this allows our machines to 'batch' the contents of your envelope, recognising multiple pages and putting them in the same envelope.

Interesting fact webpost is run and operated by www.fpmailing.co.uk one of the leading suppliers of franking machines and mailroom equipment worldwide.
